REFLECTION ON FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER (YEAR A)

Jesus is the Way, Truth, and Life: Jesus tells his disciples not to be troubled, identifying himself not as a roadmap, but as the path itself to the Father. Knowing Jesus is knowing the Father, as they are inseparable.

The Church as Living Stones: Drawing from 1 Peter 2:4-9, Christians are encouraged to build a community of "living stones," a spiritual house holding on to Christ as the cornerstone.

A Call to Serve and Act: Jesus promises that believers will do the works he does, challenging us to bring mercy to a broken world.

Unity in the Father and Son: The gospel emphasizes that the Father dwells in Jesus and acts through him, promising that those who believe in Him will also do the works of the Father.

FAITH SHARING FOR SOCIETAL AND DEVOTIONAL GROUP

Today's Gospel is taken from Jesus' long speech at the Last Supper. When he announces his departure, the disciples are understandably sad, but he consoles them with warm words of hope: Through his death they will go to the Father.

The central verse of this Gospel, when Jesus identifies himself as "the way, the truth, and the life," reveals Jesus not only as the "way" to the Father, but as the revelation of the Father.

In his humanity, he reveals what God is like. Jesus' kindness, his compassion, his concern for the poor, his forgiveness of sinners help us to know the Father.

DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that the first Catholic Mass in Ghana was celebrated as far back as 1482 in Elmina—long before Accra even became a major city?

That means Catholicism in Ghana is over 500 years old, making it one of the earliest Christian traditions in West Africa.

THE CHURCH AS THE BODY OF CHRIST

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that the Eucharist is the true presence of Jesus Christ—Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. In every Mass, the risen Lord becomes present to nourish His people.

In the Easter season, we are invited to recognize Christ in the breaking of bread and to draw closer to Him through the Eucharist.
