REFLECTION ON SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER (YEAR A)

The Sixth Sunday of Easter (Year A) serves as a pivotal moment in the Easter season, bridging the celebration of the Resurrection with the anticipation of the Solemnity of Pentecost. The reflections for this day center on the themes of love through obedience, the promise of the Advocate, and the mission of the Holy Spirit.

• Love Manifested in Obedience

The Gospel (John 14:15–21) emphasizes that love for Christ is not merely a feeling but is demonstrated through faithful obedience to His teachings.

• The Promise of the Advocate (The Paraclete)

Jesus promises to send "another Advocate" (the Holy Spirit) so that His disciples are not left as orphans.

• Living the Gospel with Gentleness

The second reading (1 Peter 3:15–18) calls for a practical application of faith in a challenging world.

The Spirit grants a peace that the world cannot give, transforming fear into courage.

FAITH SHARING FOR SOCIETAL AND DEVOTIONAL GROUP

This Gospel reminds us that Jesus never abandons His people. Even though He would no longer remain physically with the disciples, He promised them the gift of the Holy Spirit — God's own presence living within them. Through the Spirit, believers are strengthened, guided, and comforted in every situation.

Faith allows us to recognize that Christ is still alive among us: in our hearts, in prayer, and in the people around us. We are not alone or defenseless, because God's Spirit dwells within us, giving us courage, peace, and hope. As Christians, we are invited to see Christ in ourselves and in one another, allowing His love to shape the way we live and relate to others.

THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that the Ascension of Jesus marks the completion of His earthly mission.

Forty days after His Resurrection, Christ ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

This reminds us that Jesus did not leave us alone. He returned to the Father and continues to guide His Church through the Holy Spirit.
